Original Poem Assignment

1. Where do you see pain in the images? Explain.

2. Where do you see hope in the images? Explain.

3. Look through the images of the explosions at the Boston Marathon. Which one stands out to you the most? Why? Explain.

4. Using the image you chose, write a poem that describes your feelings about what you see. Be as creative as you like: repeat words, chop up the lines and sentences, make connections to your own life and your own experiences. Write your poem in the space below:
