What do you think?

“Hidden Treasures” this week mentions the lessons you can take at the Arvada Center. Do you prefer to take lessons that help you polish skills you already have, or ones that introduce you to things you’ve never tried? Write a brief essay about your preference, or why you sometimes like one and sometimes the other.

Proofreading:

There are five errors in this passage. Can you find them all? Correct each mistake in the space above it.

The plot is wall-crafted and very easy to follow, and it is clere that the writer's put a lot of time and efort into this move.

Summarize the story:

Use three sentences to tell about the Australian bushfires.

1.

2.

3.

Look it up!

Your brain looks something like a sphere, so a “hemispherectomy” removes half your brain, or a “hemisphere.” Most other words for surgery that removes an organ are less imaginative. For each of these words, tell the organ or body part that is removed. We've done the first one for you.
