

Tampa Bay Times Newspaper in Education program wins awards

Two educational publications produced by the Tampa Bay Times Newspaper in Education program have received awards in the 2020 National Newspaper Association Better Newspaper Editorial Contest in the NIE - Partnerships category.

The Palace in the Heart of Tampa, designed by Patty Langle, won First Place. Dating back to 90 BCE, the hydraulis is a musical instrument with a rich history. From the hydraulis to church organs to the Mighty Wurlitzer, the instrument has had many incarnations. The Mighty Wurlitzer Theatre Organ in Tampa Theatre is a 1,400-pipe instrument, originally installed to accompany silent films when the theater opened in 1926. Learn about its history and the history of the historic Tampa Theatre in this teaching poster. This publication was created in partnership with the Tampa Theatre.

Pasco County Recycling 2019: Caring for our Earth, designed by Lisa Schillinger, won Second Place. Recycling saves energy, money and the environment. Learn what can and can't be recycled curbside in Pasco County and get up to date on the many recycling resources, programs and events available to Pasco County residents. This publication was created in partnership with Pasco County Recycling and Pasco County Schools.

Established in 1885, the mission of the National Newspaper Association is to protect, promote and enhance America's community newspapers. Winners were recognized at NNA's awards ceremony on Saturday, October 3, 2020 during NNA's 134th Virtual Convention & Trade Show.