

Cartoons for the Classroom

Presented by NIEonline.com and the Association of American Editorial Cartoonists (AAEC)

Will U.S. tourists soon flock to Cuba?

Chan Lowe / Courtesy of AAEC

Talking points

1. What are these cartoons predicting about Cuba?
2. Do new U.S. rules lift all restrictions on traveling to Cuba?
3. Why would U.S. tourists be attracted to Cuba?
4. Would you be interested in visiting Cuba?
5. Who first banned U.S. citizens from going to Cuba?
6. When and why did it happen?
5. What historic event is artist Chan Lowe referring to in his cartoon?

Between the lines

“Where are all these people going to eat? Where are all these people going to stay?” - John Kavulich, U.S.-Cuba Trade and Economic Council.

http://www.nytimes.com/2015/01/16/world/americas/us-eases-decades-old-rules-on-travel-to-cuba.html?\_r=0

Additional resources

More by Chan Lowe

<http://editorialcartoonists.com/cartoon/browse.cfm/LoweC>

More by Bruce Plante

<http://editorialcartoonists.com/cartoon/browse.cfm/PlantB>

Association of American Editorial Cartoonists
<http://editorialcartoonists.com>

Bruce Plante, Tulsa World / Courtesy of AAEC