

Cartoons for the Classroom

Presented by NIEonline.com and the Association of American Editorial Cartoonists (AAEC)

World events shake up investors

Copyright Lisa Benson

Lisa Benson, Victor Valley Daily Press / Courtesy of AAEC

Talking points

1. What are these cartoons saying about investors and world news events?
2. What is happening in China, Greece and Puerto Rico that could make investors nervous?
3. How much do cold, hard facts influence investing?
4. How much do irrational emotions impact investors?
5. Which has more power over markets facts or emotions?
6. How much stock trading is being done by autonomous computer programs deciding which stocks to buy or sell?

Between the lines

"We all got trapped because of greed. Now, I have to wait until the stock market gets better." - Chinese investor.

https://www.washingtonpost.com/world/asia_pacific/chinese-watch-in-horror-as-their-stock-investments-crash/2015/07/09/58115f26-25a5-11e5-b621-b55e495e9b78_story.htm

Additional resources

More by Lisa Benson

<http://editorialcartoonists.com/cartoon/browse.cfm/BensoL>

More by Adam Zyglis

<http://editorialcartoonists.com/cartoon/browse.cfm/ZygliA>

Association of American Editorial Cartoonists

<http://editorialcartoonists.com/>

Adam Zyglis, The Buffalo News / Courtesy of AAEC