Talking points

1. What do these cartoons say about the rivalry between Democratic presidential hopefuls Hillary Clinton and Bernie Sanders?
2. How many convention delegates has each candidate gained so far? How many delegate votes are needed to win the party's nomination?
3. What are the strengths and weaknesses of each candidate?
4. Which groups of voters support each candidate?
5. Do you favor any of the Democratic or Republican presidential candidates? Why?

Between the lines

"While Clinton is going to be the nominee . . . Sanders has won the hearts of Democrats in a way Clinton never will." - Larry Sabato, political scientist.
