

Wednesday, September 28, 2005

Writing

Descriptive writing

Look at the classified ads in today's newspaper. Find the lost and found ads. Create a list, on the board, overhead or flip chart, of the characteristics of a lost and found ad. (It must describe the lost or found item clearly so someone would know what it looks like.) Find an inanimate object in today's newspaper. Don't tell anyone what it is. Pretend that you are that object. Without naming the object, write a description of that object for a lost and found classified ad. Example: "I am lost. I have many pages. I am mostly black and white but I am read all over. I am a wonderful teaching tool." What am I?

Complete Sentences

Find ten headlines in today's newspaper that are not complete sentences. Write the headlines down. Re-write the headline so that it is a complete sentence.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, PLEASE CALL:
MIAMI-DADE (305) 376-3247 BROWARD (954) 764-7026 EXT. 3247

The Miami Herald
The Herald
el Nuevo Herald