

Come Experience the Biggest Changes in 50 Years!

“BIGGEST DREAM” STUDENT ART/ESSAY CONTEST!

In a unique effort designed to teach and inspire children to achieve their goals and aspirations by pursuing their dreams, students are asked to display their dreams through displaying art and/or writing an essay.

GRADE K-3: DRAW A PICTURE OF YOUR “BIGGEST DREAM” AND TELL US IN 2-3 SENTENCES ABOUT YOUR “DREAM?”
GRADE 4-6: EXPLAIN IN 250 WORDS YOUR “BIGGEST DREAM.”

Here is your chance to share with others by writing an essay and illustrating it. For your illustration, use any medium on paper no larger than 8" x 11". Winning contestants will each WIN tickets to a select performance of Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey®. Four winners will be chosen. (Two from grades K-3 and two from grades 4-6.) Open to all elementary and middle school students in public or private school in Miami-Dade, Broward, and Monroe counties. Entries are judged on content, artistic ability, creativity and imagination. Student's name, school name, teacher's name, grade level, school address, school phone number and home phone number must be written on the upper righthand corner of the essay and on the back of the art. All entries become the property of The Miami Herald. Employees of The Miami Herald Publishing Company, CBS4, and the McClatchy Company, and the immediate family members of such employees are not eligible to participate.

All entries must be received by 5 pm on December 29, 2006.

Mail your illustration and essay, one entry per student, to: The Miami Herald, NIE Art/Essay Contest, One Herald Plaza, Miami, FL 33132
 For further information please call Miami-Dade (305) 376-3247 or Broward (954) 764-7026 ext. 3274.