

FREE WORKSHOP

for teachers of grades 3-10

The Tampa Bay Times Newspaper in Education Program is proud to present

“Reading, Writing, & Everglades History” with veteran educator and author Tom Tufts

Featuring Common Core Standards and introducing his newest novel,
The Dynamite Days of Middle School, the sequel to The Night Before Middle School

During the workshop, you will learn all about his new novel and accompanying curriculum. Come travel with Jay and Laz as they cross Florida’s Tamiami Trail in search of Susie in Fort Myers. On their journey, the characters learn all about the Everglades, its diverse ecosystem, and the obstacles that caused the need for restoration.

Highlights of the workshop:

- Informative Everglades presentation
- Complimentary copies of the latest novel and new vocabulary-building board game for participants
- Fresh ideas, strategies and hands-on activities to improve your students’ reading and writing skills
- Handouts and curriculum supplements
- Complimentary refreshments
- Prize drawing

Saturday, April 18, 2015
8:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Tampa Bay Times Auditorium
490 First Avenue South, St. Petersburg

Tampa Bay
Times
NIE

newspaper in education
tampabay.com/nie

Don’t miss this opportunity: Visit
tampabay.com/nie
to register online. Space is limited; your reservation will be confirmed by e-mail.

Deadline for registration:
Monday, April 13

If you sign up and cannot attend, please e-mail ordernie@tampabay.com so that someone on the waiting list may attend.

