Talking points

1. How does Steve Breen address two different news reports in a single cartoon?
2. Which type of hacking attack is worse: exposing embarrassing photos or stealing financial information?
3. What should Apple iCloud and Home Depot do about the recent data thefts?
4. Would you feel safe using Internet cloud services, buying online or simply using a credit card at a store?
5. What could help protect our personal information from being stolen by hackers?

Between the lines

"The criminals are getting smarter faster than the companies." Jaime Katz, Morningstar analyst.
