

Cartoons for the Classroom

Presented by NIEonline.com and the Association of American Editorial Cartoonists (AAEC)

New rules allow more deportations

Talking Points

1. How do these cartoons express different views of new federal policies that will allow more undocumented immigrants to be deported?
2. What are the arguments for and against more deportations?
3. If 11 million undocumented immigrants were deported, what would happen to the U.S. economy? How could it help or hurt other American workers?
4. What could happen to deportees' young children who are U.S. citizens?

Between the lines

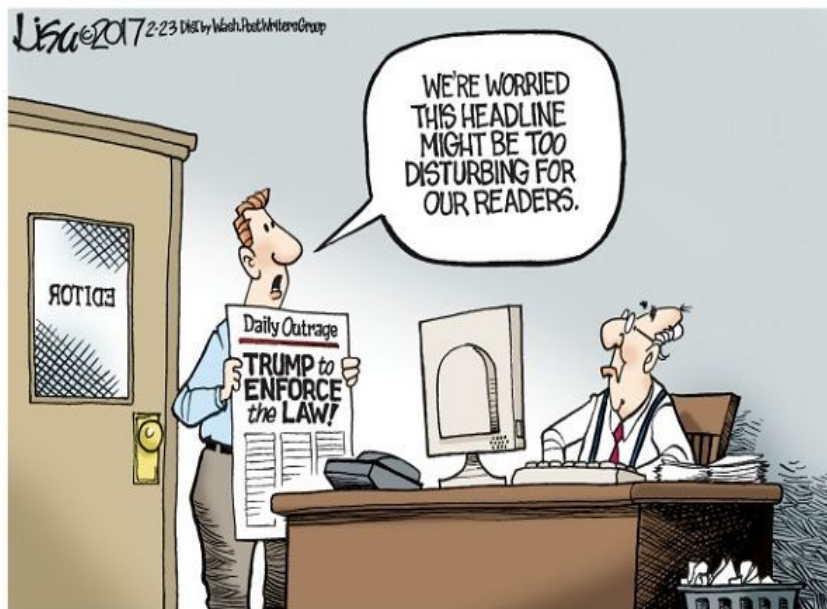

"These memos lay out a detailed blueprint for the mass deportation of 11 million undocumented immigrants in America." - Lynn Tramonte, immigrant advocate
