Talking Points

1. What are these cartoonists saying about the mosque attacks that killed 50 people in New Zealand?
2. As a candidate, President Donald Trump criticized his predecessor and opponent for not using the term "radical Islamic terrorism." Now, some criticize him for not calling out white nationalist terrorism. Is either criticism valid? Explain.
3. How can tribalism – strongly identifying with your own ethnic group or religion – lead to hate and violence? What about fear?
4. How is the Internet being used to spread terrorism?

Between the lines

When asked if he saw white nationalism as a rising threat around the world, President Trump said: "I don't really. I think it's a small group of people that have very, very serious problems, I guess."
