

What does the world think of US?

Osama Hajjaj

Cagle.com

Osama Hajjaj / Courtesy of Cagle.com

1. What are these foreign cartoonists saying about the United States after the shooting deaths of 10 people at a Buffalo supermarket?

2. Do you think the cartoons are fair? Why or why not?

3. With more civilian-owned firearms than people, is America obsessed with guns?

4. Has racism and religious bigotry driven mass killings?

5. Have these cartoonists' home countries – Jordan and Mexico – had their own problems with violence and bigotry?

6. Should we care what the rest of the world thinks of the US?

Between the lines

The Buffalo shooting was a "vile act of racist violent extremism.... We must all work together towards building more peaceful and inclusive societies." – Antonio Guterres, UN secretary-general.

<https://www.npr.org/2022/05/16/1099069917/un-secretary-general-calls-buffalo-shooting-vile-act-of-racist-extremism>

Additional resources

■ More by Osama Hajjaj

<https://www.cagle.com/author/osama-hajjaj/>

■ More by Dario Castillejos

<https://www.cagle.com/author/dario-castillejos/>

■ Association of American

Editorial Cartoonists

<http://editorialcartoonists.com/>

CAGLE.COM

Dario

Dario Castillejos / Courtesy of Cagle.com