1. What are these cartoons saying about recent decisions by the United States Supreme Court?
2. What has the court's conservative majority ruled on abortion, gun control, religion and climate change?
3. Which decisions do you agree or disagree with? Why?
4. How will these decisions affect your life now and in the future?
5. Many conservatives accused liberal justices of "activist" decisions. Are the conservatives now the "activists"?
6. Over the years, both sides have urged justices' impeachment. Has that ever happened?

Between the lines

"Will this institution survive the stench that this creates in the public perception that the Constitution and its reading are just political acts?" - Justice Sonya Sotomayor.
