1. What are these cartoons saying about the plight of lawyer Rudy Giuliani who was indicted last week along with former President Donald Trump on racketeering (RICO) charges in Georgia?
2. Giuliani was a prosecutor and mayor of New York before working as a top lawyer contesting Trump's 2020 election loss. How many other people were indicted last week with Trump and Giuliani?
3. Trump reportedly turned down Giuliani's pleas for help with legal debts. Where is Trump getting the money to pay his own legal bills, including four criminal indictments?
4. What happened to former Trump lawyer Michael Cohen?

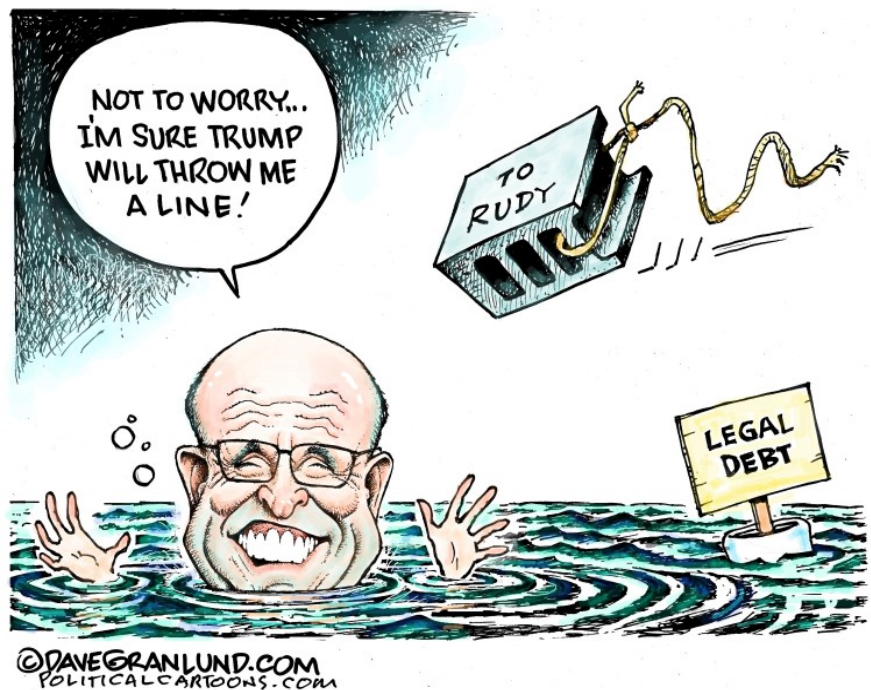

Between the lines

"Of all the defendants, Giuliani knows RICO better than anyone, he lived with it for decades. Rudy knows darn well where the line is drawn, and it's surprising to me that he even put himself in that position." - Michael Discioarro, a former New York City prosecutor.
