1. What are these cartoons saying about Former President Donald Trump urging his supporters last week to pay $59.99 for a "God Bless the USA Bible"?
2. The Bible sales will pay Trump an unknown sum for his "name, likeness and image." Do you think that money will help him help pay his soaring legal bills including a hush-money trial later this month?
3. Is the Bible sale also a bid by Trump to boost his support among evangelical Christians?
4. Trump has lent his name to many ventures from real estate to $399 gold-colored sneakers. How many of his ventures ended up in courtrooms?

Between the lines

"I wouldn't want to get into it because to me that's very personal. You know, when I talk about the Bible, it's very personal, so I don't want to get into verses. ... The Bible means a lot to me, but I don't want to get into specifics." - Donald Trump, when asked for a favorite Bible verse.
