

Cartoons for the Classroom

Presented by NIEonline.com and the Association of American Editorial Cartoonists (AAEC)

Hacking presidential campaigns

Chris Weyant / Courtesy of Cagle.com

1. What do these cartoons say about the FBI investigating reports that Iran hacked the presidential campaigns of Former President Donald Trump and Vice-President Kamala Harris?
2. Have other countries tried to influence U.S. elections in the past? Any examples?
3. Has the United States ever tried to influence other nations' elections? Any examples?
4. What other tools could a nation use to sway votes? Social media? Artificial intelligence? Money?
5. Is the media dealing with hacked material differently than it did in the past? Why should such information be revealed or withheld?

Between the lines

"Russia, if you're listening ... I think you will probably be rewarded mightily by our press." - Donald Trump, 2016.

"Any media or news outlet reprinting documents or internal communications are doing the bidding of America's enemies. - Tump campaign, 2024

<https://apnews.com/article/trump-campaign-hacking-iran-769d8411d9a13ef9a0e039c0b6c3b032>

Additional resources

■ More by Chris Weyant

<https://cagle.com/weyant>

■ More by Jimmy Margulies

<https://cagle.com/margulies>

■ Editorial Cartoonists

<http://editorialcartoonists.com/>

Jimmy Margulies / Courtesy of Cagle.com