

Through Our Eyes: Midtown and Beyond

13th Annual Journeys in Journalism Exhibition

Graffiti artist Alec Grabler paints a mural at Anchor Skate Supply.
MEENA SNYDER | John Hopkins Middle School

Lakeyia Thompson dances at a rally during test season.
MYALYN POMPEY | Melrose Elementary School

The basketball team takes its training beachside.
IMANI LASSITER | Lakewood High School

DECEMBER 6-19, 2017
THE STUDIO@620

Opening Reception Wednesday December 6, 2017 / 5-8PM
A Taste of Midtown Friday December 8, 2017 / 5-8PM
Admission is Free

the studio
@620
The Studio@620
620 1st Ave South, St. Petersburg 33701
www.studio620.org / 727-895-6620

A SPECIAL PROGRAM IN MULTIMEDIA STUDIES
JOURNEYS IN JOURNALISM
Report Life.

Through Our EYES

MELROSE ELEMENTARY / JOHN HOPKINS MIDDLE / LAKEWOOD HIGH

Presented in partnership with the Centers for Journalism and Multimedia at Melrose Elementary, John Hopkins Middle and Lakewood High, Pinellas County Schools. Sponsored by Reedy Photo, Florida Frames, Inc. and Journeys in Journalism Advisory Committee